CHRONICLES OF

The Woman With The Lead Vagina

There once was a woman who had a lead vagina

This woman just wanted to live her life, but she couldn't.

Why, you ask?

Because her vagina was made of solid lead.

She was nicknamed Pb, not peanut butter

BUT THE CHEMICAL ABBREVIATION

FOR LEAD.

Lead lead elade laed lead elad elda

THE WOMAN WITH THE LEAD VAGINA GOES SWIMMING

First. She selects a bathing suit that will accentuate her features.

Second. She will select a swimming hole that will serve her in the best way.

THIRD.

She will dip her feet into the swimming pool as if she is checking the temperature of the water.

FOURTH.

She will get inside of the swimming pool.
She will have a lovely time
Until eventually
The weight of her vagina becomes too much
And she drowns
And dies
